

Our Man In Kuwait

Louise Burfitt-Dons

A colonial-era thriller set against the background of big power conflict. The ultimate timepiece tinderbox of sun, sex and spies.

"A brilliant marriage of fact and fiction" says Hamish de Bretton-Gordon OBE, world chemical weapons expert.

Our Man In Kuwait is based around real events.

Louise Burfitt-Dons was born and grew up in a country threatened with invasion by Iraq at any time. Her father was Preventative Health Officer for the Kuwait Oil Company. At the end of 1960 Ian Fleming visited the country and they became close friends.

Louise is author of the bestselling Karen Andersen Thriller series. Our Man in Kuwait is a stand alone work.

Synopsis: Kuwait 1960. With Soviet backing Iraq plans to invade. Gordon Carlisle lives in the expat community of Ahmadi with little to worry about other than when to next don his dinner jacket. Following contact by an MI6 agent everything changes. Even marriage to his beautiful new wife Anita breaks down as he becomes a suspect in a chain of deaths in the Protectorate. Ian Fleming's time in Kuwait is recorded at first hand as Britain prepares to meet head on the Iraqi forces.

- Agatha Christie analytical thriller
- Timely and relevant
- Fiction based on true events
- In pre-production for movie

Publishing Date: November 20, 2022

Trade Paperback Edition

Page count: 334 page extant (est.)

Binding: 5x8 perfect paperback

ISBN: 9781 91644 9183

RRP: £11.99

Publishing Date: November 20, 2022

Trade Hardback Edition

Page count: 334 page extant (est.)

Binding: 5x8 case laminate

ISBN: 9781 91644 9190

RRP: £19.99

Genre: Historical Spy Thriller

Wholesale Ingram,

Lightning Source,

Gardners, Bertrams

Ebook: B082T3NCPW

Publisher contact:

New Century Publishing

London W4 2DE

Tel: (44) 208 995 7650

Author Location: London UK

Facebook: LouiseBurfittDons

Twitter: @LouiseBurfDons

#OurManInKuwait

Press kit available from louiseburfitttdons.com