

CHILTERN CRIME QUARTERLY EVENTS PRESENTS

MEET FIVE BEST-SELLING AUTHORS AT CHALFONT ST PETER LIBRARY

Denise Beddows

Joanna Wallace

Louise Burfitt-Dons

Dan Malakin

JA Marley

Denise Beddows writes award-winning crime/espionage fiction and true crime, her latest book 'The Forgotten Forty-Four: Victims & Survivors of America's First Serial Sex Killer' was shortlisted and awarded a 'highly commended' at the 2024 True Crime Awards.

Joanna Wallace's book 'You'd Look Better as a Ghost' won the 2023 Crime Fiction Lovers' Best Debut Crime Novel Award and has been optioned for TV, and Joanna was shortlisted for the Best Crime Author of the Year Award. Her new book 'The Dead Friend Project' is available soon.

Louise Burfitt-Dons drew on her experience of growing up in Kuwait for the background to her best-selling espionage thriller 'Our Man in Kuwait'. She is author also of 'The Missing Activist', 'The Killing of the Cherrywood MP' and 'The Secret War'.

Dan Malakin, author of 'The Regret' and 'The Box', and twice shortlisted for The Bridport Prize, introduces his latest book 'The Wreckage of Us', described as 'suspenseful, thrilling and perfectly crafted' and 'a masterful study of the art of manipulation'.

JA Marley, John, who runs his own successful TV production company, pens the best-selling Danny Felix series of crime thrillers including 'London Interrupted' and 'The Unholy Hours'.

COME AND MEET THE AUTHORS AT CHALFONT ST PETER LIBRARY 2-4 pm SATURDAY 22 JUNE.

TICKETS £7 AVAILABLE TO BUY IN THE LIBRARY. ALL PROCEEDS GO TO THE LIBRARY.

* JUNE 2024 IS NATIONAL CRIME READING MONTH ****